DFG DROPS THE HAMMER—The picture on our front cover shows the restrictive southern zones about to be imposed as of January 2012. The MLPA process has been going on for almost 10 years. The recreational community is truly up against some very formidable opponents, well organized and possessing some very deep pockets. What this means for our future fishing is anyone's guess - but we need a more effective reaction to prevent these restrictions from becoming permanent. The judgement received during the middle of December is being appealed. See page 3 for more complete wrap up!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE By Frank Polak

Welcome to the New Year. While fishing may be on hold waiting for Spring to arrive, there has been plenty going on with the Los Angeles Rod & Reel Club.

For starters, the Board of Directors (per our bylaws) has elected the 2012 slate of offices, starting with Barry Cohn as your new President. The club will be in great hands under his leadership. Barry will be getting plenty of assistance from Vice President Rob Baldwin, along with Treasurer, John Rhind, Secreary Nick Ek Dahl and Historian Joel Steinman.

Like most of us they'll be juggling professional and family obligations along with club duties and will need just a tad bit of help. Keeping the LARRC running smoothly is nearly a full time job in itself. A few free minutes each month goes a long way. If you can spare some of those minutes, contact any of the above (or myself via the information listed below) for how you can contribute to the premier fishing club in Southern California.

By now each of our members should have received a 2012 renewal notice. If you have not, please see me at the next meeting (or simply get in touch with any of our officers or committee chairpersons) and we'll get one out to you ASAP. These are especially important if there are any changes to the Yearbook, which will be going to press shortly after you read this.

Our first big event of the year is right around the corner...63rd Dan Felger Awards Banquet and Foundation Auction at the Braemar Country Club on Sunday, February 26th. The Banquet is also when we honor our members outstanding achievements on the water and introduce the new officers.

Most importantly, the auction provides the LARRC Foundation with the resources to continue our youth programs, including the Lou Berke Trout Derby, the annual Kid's Trip; the Marine Mentors trips and the scholarship funds for marine research to assure the future of our fishing resources.

Donations and goods and services are needed! Contact Steve Simon at 818-980-7470 or 818-469-7651 for more on how you can make the gift of a day on the water a reality for a deserving young person.

Here's how you can contact me for information on becoming a bigger part of the LARRC:

Marine Closures...Latest Available Update

REPORT RECEIVED FROM AMERICAN SPORTFISHING ASSOCIATION

Sacramento, Ca - Dec. 15, 2011

...Today the Partnership for Sustainable Oceans (PSO) announced that the legal challenge against the Marine Life Protection Act (MLPA) process is not yet over. Coastside Fishing Club, one of the three petitioners in litigation before the San Diego Superior Court challenging MLPA regulations adopted by the California Fish and Game Commission for the North Central Coast, filed an appeal with California's 4th District Court of Appeal. Regulations to close large areas of Southern California's coastal waters to fishing will likely go into effect in January 2012, and the appeal process will likely last until late 2012. Coastside's appeal arises from the denial by Judge Ronald Prager on October 17, 2011 of its request for a Writ of Mandate voiding MLPA regulations adopted by the commission for California's North Central Coast in 2009 based on legal defects in implementing California law.

After a careful review, Coastside concluded that Judge Prager's ruling is inconsistent with the mandates of the law as established by the legislature. The outcome of the appeal of Judge Prager's ruling on the North Central Coast regulations would likely influence the resolutions of a similar challenge to the validity of the South Coast regulations brought in the same lawsuit by co-plaintiffs, United Anglers of Southern and Robert C. Fletcher.

The PSO launched a new website, www.SaveCAFishing.org to raise awareness of the legal challenge against the flawed MLPA process and to provide an opportunity for all anglers, boaters and anyone interested in a fair legal process to contribute to the effort. Under the "Donate" Section of the site you should find a program to support these efforts. Please help preserve our fisheries or the proposed restrictions will go into effect—currently scheduled to go into effect Jan. 1st 2012—and remain there in perpetuity. We are talking about 49 areas encompassing 354 square miles or 15% of our fishable regions.

THE FOLLOWING MEMBERS HAVE BEEN ELECTED TO THE LARRC BOARD

Nick Ekdahl, Rob Balwin, Dave Levinson,
Emilio Rebollar, Michael

CONGRATULATIONS!

The PSO consists of (among others) American Sportfishing Association (ASA), Coastside Fishing Club, IGFA, National Marine Manufacturers Assn (NMMA), Sportfishing Association of California (SAC), United Anglers (UASC,) along with many diving and kayaking clubs.

FOUNDATION YEAR END REPORT By Steve Simon

2011 was a very successful year for the Foundation. Through the generosity of members, family and friends we had contributions of $17,000 and Tributes of $3000. With these funds we were able to underwrite the annual Long Beach Kid's Trip, scholarships to Calif-State University Long Beach, and make a grant to NCMC. Thanks for all your support.

Special thanks to outgoing Trustee David Levinson for all his help during the year and chairing the scholarship committee for Cal-State University.

February 26th we will be having our Annual Installation Banquet and Auction. We are still in desperate need for donations of items to be auctioned off—both silent and live auctions.

Another date to be noted on your calendars is March 16TH—the Lou Berke Annual Kids' Trout Derby for Special Needs Children.

Volunteers will be needed—please invite all family and friends to join us for this rewarding activity.

Once more I would like to thank ALL of you for your support in giving. Your generosity and your time counted during 2011.

A special thanks to all of our trustees:

JOHN BALLOTTI REPORTS FROM EASTERN SIERRAS

My wife says I am an impulse buyer. When the email came from Sierra Drifters saying the lower Owens river flows crashed in the last few weeks and the drift boat trips were scoring big numbers, what was I to do? Of course I booked a trip with ace guide Phil Therrien of Sierra Drifters. Getting out of LA was the most difficult part of the drive north. Arriving in Bishop I couldn't wait so I headed for the river to see what was happening. My goodness, what a difference from September when the flow was around 500 cfs. At that time the river was a featureless torrent of water flowing bank to bank. Now at about 100cfs. The rivers' features took shape with structure, gravel bars and sand bars prevalent defining soft water, rapids and deep pools. A few casts with a gold phoebe yielded one nice rainbow. Phil called and we arranged to meet the next day at the reasonable hour of 8 a.m. We would meet below the point where Bishop creek flows into the Owens. The additional 80cfs from the creek bumps the river up to a very driftable 180cfs. The morning greeting us at a chilly 20 degrees with the promise of the 50's by lunch. Phil was waiting for me at the designated spot and a short ride in his truck brought us to his drift boat. The Lower Owens is a 40 to 1 stream meaning for everyone mile as the crow flies, the stream twists and turns for 4 miles. After a short fly fishing 101 refresher we were off. Phil explained the type of fishing that is most effective is called the dip and strip method. It is perfect for beginners as there is no back and forth casting trying to avoid the reeds and trees lining the river. Just make a short roll cast or no cast at all. The current will take your expertly setting up so I could fish the deeper pools and converging currents. Catching fish meant finding the right spot as the general overall bite was not happening. We did find and catch quite a few rainbows. Finding the spot generally meant catching more the one fish followed by stretches of beautiful scenery. By 10 a.m. I was shedding layers of clothing as the sun warmed offering downstream and when the desired amount of line is in the water dip the rod in the river and strip the line back using a series of short pulls. All rods and flies are provided by Sierra Drifters. I was using a 9ft.6 weight SLT Sage rod loaded with Rio 24'150 grain sink tip line. The flies I used were size 12 in the following patterns: Spruce-a-boo, icebergs and phil specials.

Phil deftly guided the boat downstream avoiding the shallows and the Owens Valley. A drift boat trip is 7 river hours of fishing, catching, wildlife viewing and incredible Eastern Sierra scenery. Sierra Drifters is a class operation and Phil Therrien is an expert guide and as nice a guy you would ever want to fish with. This will not be my last drift trip as it is a great value.

Please note these dates for 2012. All meetings take place at the Valley Inn.

NOW LISTEN UP!!! LARRC RECORD SEEKERS!!

The IGFA has noted the following pending records...

A lady angler named Eryn Jacobsen landed a 911 pound bluefin tuna off Cape George, Nova Scotia last September. What's amazing is that the fish was caught on 50 lb test.

Fly angler, Thane Morgan, out of Florida Bay bested a 88 lb. tarpon on a 4 lb test. Tippet.

PHIL BELL, HITS A HOME RUN!

By "HIMSELF "

I had never caught a wahoo in my life! Never! Hadn't done too much long-range fishing either. Fishing aboard the INTREPID in early November with 25 other anglers, I signed up for the first trolling rotation near Magdalena Bay. A well-proven orange and green Marauder was the lure of choice.

Suddenly I got the first strike on the boat's Avet 30W reel using 100-lb. test. Excitedly, I took the outfit off its strap and started fighting the beast being sure to keep my rod tip pointed at the fish. As I had difficulty gaining line I put the reel into low gear. Even so he took off on me at least three times. Finally, it came to the boat and it took two gaffs to get it over the rail. The deck hands and others could not believe the size of that fish. 95.4-lbs. made my catch the biggest wahoo caught in over three years. I've noted before that, in fishing, I'd rather be lucky than good!

This trophy fish was the ultimate angling experience.

My second 50-lb. wahoo turned out to be the jackpot, and I donated it to the galley. That evening we ate the jackpot fish, prepared excellently by Chef Julio. Capt. Mike noted it was the largest bait fish caught on the trip. Go to fishintrepid.com for more pictures taken on this "Larry Brown Charter".

P.S. Phil what will you do for an encore?

CATHY'S STEELHEAD REPORT

By Cathy Lee Needleman

My husband and I have a small home in Port Orford, Oregon, on the Elk River.

Winter rains, November-February usually bring increased river levels when these beautiful fish come up from the Pacific into the Elk and its tributaries such as the Sixes River.

I had invited three of dad's good fishing buddies, Toke Aw, Rodney Higa and Bob Yokoi to join me to fish on the Elk and the Sixes before Christmas. Our excellent guides—twins Scott and Richard Wolfe had some misgivings because of the weather—but we came ahead and were not disappointed. The first day on the Umpqua, using conventional level winds, we caught several trout and steelhead, all released.

The second day saw us trying the Sixes which produced nice fish both on fly rods and conventional tackle. It was the fish that Bob caught on some salmon eggs that made the day. This salmon took off for shore and swam into a small shrub. Our excellent guides teamed up to wade into the water until Bob got his fish. Smiles all around!

The last day the two guided boats split up to try different areas. The guides would communicate with each other and alert us to the action taking place and the tackle employed. I got several more fish and Bob finished a happy man using his flies.

Scott and Richard showed up with the few fish we had filleted and all of us had an excellent farewell meal at the local restaurant colloquially named "Redfish". My memories will last a longtime!
